

It was as usual. İlayda is sitting on her desk. Ezgi comes in. Looks around and sees the nerd girl İlayda. She goes near her and asks “ Where is your homework ?”

She answers as “ Why are you asking?”

Ezgi says “ Oh!! It is here. Can I take it?” İlayda does not say anything. Ezgi says “ Of course I can take it. Thanks...”

İlayda starts to cry. Because she studied so hard to do this homework last night. She starts doing it again. At that time Betül comes in and “ What happened? Why are you crying?” İlayda thinks that Betül comes to help her and she answers “ Ezgi stole my homework.” Betül says” Oh!!! That is why I came here. That’s my girl!!!” Betül starts to walk away and “ By the way we are not like that. She laughs. İlayda thinks that both of these girls are so bad and selfish. They think that they are the best but they can’t be the best if they behave like this . Behaving badly makes them worse, not better as they thought.

After a while Tuğba comes in and sees İlayda and “ these girls again? Don’t be so sad because of them. Everyone can’t be good. I can help you do your homework again.” Tuğba sits near İlayda and that time Ezgi and Betül come into the class. Ezgi starts to shout “ I took it first. You can’t take it.” Betül says “ We were best friends Ezgi. Why you are doing that to me? “ Ezgi starts to be more boastful “I was always better than you. You are nothing alone.” İlayda and Tuğba watch them with curios eyes. Betül gets angry and pushes Ezgi. Ezgi falls down and Betül laughs. She takes the homework and goes. Ezgi can’t get up. Tuğba and İlayda try to help her. Ezgi says “ Why do you help me ? I have stolen your homework and treaten you in a bad way.” İlayda answers “ because goodness shouldn’t have a pay back.”

While these things are happening the bell rings. Everyone sits on their desks. Ezgi is ashamed of what she has done before. She goes near İlayda and apologizes her. She decides to be a better person anymore.

In many schools there are so much bullying like this but much of them doesn’t end like our story. It can cause very bad things. Especially at our ages. The important point is to know how we should act in these kinds of situations.
