

Johanna (Story-teller) :

Classroom :

Welcome to class 8. Today is a new girl in the class. She is from a foreign country and now she lives here with her parents.

The other girls think she is strange and they think she doesn't wear very modern clothes.

She doesn't eat the same things as the other girls. They aren't very nice to her.

Now let's have a look at her story

Sarah: Can I sit there?

Melina: No sorry but my bag needs a chair.

Sarah goes to another chair

Magdalena: Look at her hair they are so awful

Laura: I don't need more friends because I have you, and that's enough

Steffi: Of course she is not one of us

Vanessa: Let's talk about our sport activities

Melina: So we need a name for our football team. What about the six girls of Bavarien

The others agree!

Johanna (Story-teller) :

At the sport cabin :

After a few days there is an important soccer game for the class, but one significant girl for the team is ill. Now the girls have a big problem. Look what happens!

Steffi : look at this picture from my boyfriend!

The others are excited

Melina comes in

Melina: Marina is ill we need a new player
What about Sarah?

The others are skeptical

But Melina can persuade them. Melina takes Sarah from the floor.

They are going to the game.

Johanna (Story-teller) :

With the help of her the class won the soccer game. The others celebrate her and the winning. Now she had new friends.

Melina and Steffi are carrying Sarah in the room

All together : We won!

At the evening Steffi, Laura and Vanessa are sitting in circle

Towards Inclusive and active education by young European story tellers

